1. Clearance Basics:

The clearance process should be completed only in My Separation tool.
The Clearance separation process is online for all Separations (Includes – External Employees, Direct Contractors and Payroll Transfers outside India)

The online separations Portal "My Separations" is hosted in the ITAP portal http://itap.myatos.net/myseparation. (Employee may contact ITAP team to resolve any technical issues. Please raise a ticket on local service desk for the same)

Employee should check the following prior to submission of resignation in My Separation Portal:

Portal Related:

1. Kindly check if your Org Unit, your Manager and BU HR (Business Unit HR or HR Business Partner) are correctly reflecting in ITAP.
2. Kindly fill in all the details in my resignation including your personal email id
3. Respective reporting Manager has to approve the last working day in the system.

Delay in Submission of Resignation on MY SEPARATION PORTAL, leads to delay in Settlements

Where the approval of your resignation in My Separation is delayed and the resignation is approved post Payroll Cut-off date of last month, the settlement processing gets delayed by an additional one month.
Payroll Cut- off date is 10th of Every Month.

For Example:

Where Last Working Day is Post Payroll Cut off:

An employee Mr. Sai resigns on 25-Jun with last working day as 24-Sept. He has to submit the resignation on 25-Jun itself in "My Separation Portal". His Manager has to approve or reject the resignation by 10-Sep, in case, Manager Mr. M doesn't approve on or before 10th Sep, then the settlement will be delayed by a month.

Once Mr. M, approves the separation in the portal, the separation information flows to various clearance Stakeholders. It will prompt to the stakeholders on the approved last working day.

- Settlement for this case will then get processed in October payroll.

The amount processed in October Salary will be visible to employee in the October payslip.
Thus, employee with last working day as 24-Sept can expect the settlement amount by 30 Oct.

Where Last Working Day is prior to Payroll Cut off (i.e. 10th of the Month):

An employee Mr. Sai resigns on 5-Jun with last working day as 4-Sept. He has to submit resignation in My Separation Portal in on 5-Jun itself.

His Manager Mr. M has to approve or reject the resignation on or before 10-Aug.

Once Mr. M, approves the separation in the portal, the separation information flows to various clearance Stakeholders. It will prompt to the Stakeholders on the approved last working day.

- Settlement for this case will then get processed in September payroll.

The amount processed in September Salary will be visible to employee in the September payslip and will be paid out in September itself.

Where earlier approved Last Working Day is Changed Post payroll cut off:

If the Manager Mr. M changes/ revises the last working day especially after 10-Sept, it will lead to delay in the Settlement computation of the Employee Mr. Sai.
Since the earlier date's information would have already flowed to the Payroll vendor. The corrected information will then flow in the next month, thereby resulting in a month's delay in settlement processing.

Impact on Employees' Salary
